

Children are not responsible for:

Annu Jyoti

Raising their brothers or sisters

Protecting their parents

Meeting their parents' expectations

Mediating in their parents' conflicts

Fulfilling their parents' unmet needs

Alleviating their parents' anxieties

Protecting the family's reputation

Their parents' psychological traumas

Regulating their parents' emotions

Fulfilling their parents' dreams

What do children owe their parents?

Adult children are obliged to support their incapacitated parents.

What do parents owe their children?

For minors - care for them, represent their interests, make decisions considering the child's opinion, and refrain from any form of violence against the child.